

Old Doms Cricket Club

Officers and Duties

Honorary Life Presidents (New proposed position)

The role of the Honorary Life President/s is to uphold the ethos of the Old Doms Cricket Club and to champion the clubs standing as a fair and honest playing cricket club and to uphold the true spirit of sportsmanship.

The Old Doms CC may elect a person to be an Honorary Life President of the club as recognition of that person's outstanding services to the Old Doms Cricket Club following the nomination made by two Clubs Members in writing or at an AGM of the Club

To be eligible for such nomination an Honorary Life President must have been a member of the Old Doms CC for at least 10 years and has made a significant contribution to the clubs development and well being.

An Honorary Life President continues to be an Honorary Life President as long as the club exists or is deemed unsuitable to hold such a position by a full AGM or EGM

An Honorary Life President holds no voting rights at an AGM/EGM but is able to attend and contribute to debates at these meetings.

Chairman (Vacant)

The Chairman's role is to preside over all club meetings. The Chairman also works closely with the other Officers of the club in ensuring that matters pertaining to the running of the club are undertaken in a professional and fair manner. The Chairman has the day to day responsibility for ensuring that the clubs standing and ethos is followed and maintained. Providing an end of season report at the relevant AGM

Vice Chairman (Vacant)

The role of the Vice Chairman is to fulfill the duties of the Chairman in his/her absence. The Vice Chairman assists the Chairman in those duties assigned to that position in order to provide continuity.

Treasurer (Mark)

The Treasurer's role is to assist the Chairman in the financial dealing of the club. The Treasurer is responsible for collecting monies, submitting deposits and keeping an accurate account of the club's finances. Providing an end of season report at the relevant AGM

Secretary (Stuart)

The Secretary assists the Chairman with recording and reporting matters relating to the club. They will assist in disseminating information, recording minutes, the organization of meetings and general "housekeeping duties". Providing an end of season report at the relevant AGM

Fixture Secretary (Mark)

The Fixtures Secretary is responsible for developing and maintaining the club's fixture list. This will involve liaising with regular clubs to arrange fixtures and to consider opportunities to play new opponents. The Fixture Secretary will provide a full list of fixtures prior to the start of the forthcoming season and will confirm venues for such games. They will report at regular intervals to the Chairman and Club Captain on matters pertaining to the list of matches.

Club Captain (Tony)

The appointment/re-appointment is made at an AGM/EGM for each season for one season only. The main role of the club Captain is to manage the playing squad and includes:-

- Welcoming new players
- Ensuring that all squad players get opportunities to play cricket
- Together with the Vice Captain select teams appropriate for each fixture
- Maintain discipline amongst the players whilst on the field of play or whenever an Old Doms is representing the club
- Contributing to the coaching of the squad of players
- Providing an end of season report at the relevant AGM

Vice Club Captain (Steve)

The role of the Vice Captain is to fulfill the duties of the Captain in his/her absence. The Vice Captain assists the Captain in those duties assigned to that position in order to provide continuity.
